

KODY YOUNG

CREATIVE, ARTIST, ENGINEER

ABOUT ME

Dynamic event curator and performer, booking live shows at iconic NYC venues like Bowery Electric and Berlin Under. I organize open mics, jam sessions, and live performances that foster creativity and connection.

As a freelance web developer, I craft custom websites for poets, performers, and small businesses using Wix, Squarespace, and WordPress. I also developed Transverb, a real-time translation app with 500+ global downloads, praised for its intuitive design.

Fluent in Android and iOS development, I combine technical expertise with artistic vision, using Procreate and Canva to create impactful visuals that bring projects to life.
